

1st March 2008,

Dear Building Partner,

Carters are proud to be the preferred supplier of materials to Lattitude Homes throughout New Zealand.

As a valued Lattitude Homes client, Carters congratulate you on your new home and would like to extend an additional offer to enjoy when you add your own finishing touches to your home and property.

With an extensive range of leading brands, Carters can offer you the right products to finish every area of your new home. From fences to fridges, we have all the right products to get the job done – just the way you like it.

What's more, as a Lattitude Homes client you will receive a special mates rates discount card, to use on any cash purchases made through any of our 50 stores nationwide.

We thank you for the opportunity and look forward to helping you take advantage of this offer, at one of our Carters stores soon.

Yours faithfully

Stuart Munro
Chief Executive
Carters